ALEBUERG in Beaufort

The Aleberg in Beaufort

The Aleberg is a former village, and today you can still see the remains of the defensive wall. Inside this wall there used to be five houses, in which a Celtic extended family lived. At the site, you can find an information board with descriptions and photos.

B4 Local Hiking Trail in Beaufort

The B4 walking trail starts at the castle in Beaufort and takes you to the Aleberg, along the Haupeschaach stream and then on to the Klingelbuer, the old wash-house of Beaufort Castle.

Today there is a small water playground there. If you want to do the Rallye „Searching for Clues in Beaufort“, the path is shortened.

1. "Holz vun hei" – Bench

Phew – that's the first bit over with. Lie back on the bench, and what can you see?

The bench is made from a tree that grew here. What types of trees are found in the region? Put a cross against the type of tree that isn't found here:

S: Beech B: Spruce A: Fir K: Palm

2. The Legend of the Ghostly Violin-Player

A legend tells the story of a ghostly violin-player, who played his violin at night not far from here and terrified night-time travelers. If you listen closely, maybe you can hear the sound of the violin. What can you hear?

Quiz Question: How many strings are there on a violin?

E: 3 N: 4 L: 7

↶ Short-Cut

You take a short-cut here: you come off the local B4 walking trail and stay on the wide path, going down the hill to the pond. At the pond, you rejoin the local B4 walking trail.

3. Coat of Arms in the Rock

While walking on the shortcut part. Keep an eye open for a rock that looks like a coat of arms. It is located at your left. Can you find it?

What can you see on it?

N: Moon I: Sun S: Stars

4. At the Pond

This pond is a habitat for many animals and plants. Spend a bit of time here, and look out for animals. Which animal is the odd one out here?

F: Fishes B: Frogs X: Dragonflies G: Tigers

Now you are back on the marked B4 walking trail. Can you see the marker sign? Then follow it.

5. Wear Marks

On the way back to the castle, you will see plenty of rocks. Can you find the big rock with the wear marks? What made them?

N: A small Stream used to run through here.
H: Tools were sharpened here.
U: It was an Animal Slide.

6. Wash-House with Water Playground

Washing Fountain

The Klingelbuer wash-house is the former laundry of Beaufort Castle. In the past, the laundry was scrubbed and washed here. Today, you will find a small water playground with an Archimedes Screw here.

What do you need for the washing fountain and the screw to work?

Archimedes'Screw

There is a picnic bench in the delightful clearing here, so it's a good spot for a short stop-off.
